Eclipse conference phone

Maestro puts our customers' needs first when we determine how to offer our services and products. Our Web store allows us to connect with you when and where it's convenient for you. We offer the low-cost, home versions of several of our world-class products online. Many of these products are only available for consumer purchase through the Maestro Web site, www.maestroservices.com.

Online Product Offerings

Eclipse phone

This conference wireless phone can be hooked up to your current phone system. Maestro is the only distributor of the Eclipse phone in the United States.

TippingPoint's Intrusion Prevention System

This is the home version of Unity One, which is unrivaled in security, performance, high availability and ease-of-use. The system operates in-line with your network to block malicious and unwanted traffic while allowing good traffic to pass unimpeded.

American Dynamics Camera Pre-Packs

These vandal-resistant cameras are designed for extreme environments where a typical camera and housing won't suffice. Tamper-resistant security hardware protects the camera and lens.

Clarysis Internet phone

This full-featured Internet phone and speakerphone with a USB connector will save you time and money. The crystal clear digital interface combines all the familiar telephone features with your PC.

ZyXel Wi-Fi Finder and USB Adapter

This tool makes it easy to find a wireless hotspot when you are on the road. Once you have found a hotspot, use this wireless device to connect with the local Wi-Fi networks.
